Introduction •

Newsletters are considered essential tools in the educational process, contributing significantly to enhancing the effectiveness of education and achieving the required educational goals. Furthermore, newsletters provide general instructions aimed at assisting teachers in conveying their lessons efficiently, in addition to distributing the approved weekly class periods. Newsletters also include corrections for typos, spelling and scientific errors in textbooks, ensuring that the content provided is reliable and accurate for the learners. Newsletters represent a solid foundation that support effective teaching and enhance the quality of education, so that the goals of the learning process can be achieved.

General Directorate for Curriculum Development

Welcome to this new school year after what we hope has been a peaceful and enjoyable summer holiday.

To help deliver the most effective teaching program, the Foreign Languages Section has compiled this newsletter for you. Please read it carefully so that you may get the best out of the Ministry of Education English language teaching materials. Your Senior Teacher, Supervisor, and the Teacher Trainer in your governorate can provide further assistance if required.

The aim of this newsletter is to clarify the most important developments in the English Language Curriculum and to highlight some aspects that should be considered while teaching it. The newsletter contains:

- General Instructions
- Approved textbooks and the number of classes per week.
- Suggested teaching content plan
- The plan prepared for single-shift schools
- The plan prepared for double-shift schools
- Appendices related to the subject

It is very important that you read all the contents of this newsletter.

We hope that it will be a very useful reference for all English language teachers and supervisors.

Specialists should review the following:

1. The Teaching Content Plan that has been approved by the Directorate General of Curriculum Development.
2. The Textbook Editions Guide for the academic year as issued by the Book Production and Teaching Aids Centre at the Directorate General for Curriculum Development.
3. The Teaching Aids Guide as issued by the Book Production and Teaching Aids Centre at the Directorate General for Curriculum Development.

General Instructions

- The Textbook Editions Guide for the academic year is issued by the Book Production and Teaching Aids Centre at the Directorate General for Curriculum Development.
The Teaching Content Plan has been approved by the Directorate General of Curriculum Development.
- Teachers should use the Teacher's Book as this is designed to help and guide them in teaching the curricula's tasks and activities. The Teacher's Book includes the aims and objectives of the curriculum. It also contains the pedagogical aspects and strategies for effective language teaching. In addition, all the concepts, skills, vocabulary, and grammar points are included in each unit.
- Teachers should adopt a variety of teaching methods that are compatible with the requirements needed to implement the curricula.
- Teachers should use the educational aids that accompany the curricula to achieve the curricula's objectives as this will enable students to achieve the goals and communicate what has been learnt in an easy and clear manner.
- Teachers should read the Student Assessment Handbook (SAH) for the classes they are assigned to teach, i.e., SAH for (grades 1-4), SAH for (grades 5-10) and SAH for (grades 11-12).
- Teachers should activate the Learning Resource Centres (LRC) in the schools to enhance the teaching and learning environment.
- Teachers should use the educational aids that accompany the curricula to achieve the curricula's objectives as this will enable students to achieve the goals and communicate what has been learnt in an easy and clear manner.
- To enhance educational practices, it is recommended to utilize Ministry licensed artificial intelligence applications (such as Copilot and Canva) in instructional planning design, as well as in the creation of content and interactive activities, thereby ensuring improved performance efficiency and higher-quality educational outcomes.

What's New This Year ?

GOLD Experience Oman is implemented for Grades 9-12 starting with grade nine this academic year 2026/2027.

Background on GOLD Experience Oman

Gold Experience Oman: a four-level course for students in Oman. Gold Experience Oman builds essential language and life skills with a wide range of inclusive and engaging topics.

Gold Experience Oman is the result of extensive research and feedback from teachers like you. The course has a Practice Guide section for extra practice. It has annotated sample tasks, task strategies and quick tips to boost performance.

Gold Experience Oman also has video lessons, including street interviews with young people, which spark discussion and bring real voices into the classroom.

Gold Experience Oman also has teaching notes full of ideas for mixed ability classes and Future Skills development. All the features of Gold Experience Oman are designed to help you deliver effective, engaging lessons with confidence.

Gold Experience Oman is here to support your students every step of the way in becoming confident users of English.

Grade 9 Student's Book

- A short Starter unit (in 9A) to recap on key language and skills before beginning unit 1.
- Six topic-based units (semesters A & B) divided into eight main teaching lessons, plus video, project, wordlist and unit check.
- Expanded Wordlists online, containing core, extra and expanded vocabulary, with pronunciation, definition, example use, and GSE level.
- Students are encouraged to explore their ideas, opinions and knowledge of the world through frequent discussion opportunities, for example through Speak activities.
- Videos and bespoke street interviews with young people expose learners to a variety of authentic video formats and ideas, and encourage them to think critically about what they watch.
- Where appropriate, Grammar vox pop interviews give authentic examples of target grammar in use.
- End-of-unit projects encourage learners to explore a topic, collaborate and work creatively with classmates, and present back to the class.
- A Practice Guide at the back of the Student's Book gives additional practice in tasks for the four skills.
- The Grammar file at the back of the book gives a full page of detailed grammar and language explanation, plus a full page of practice activities for every unit.
- The digital Student Resources give access to the video, and Student's Book and Workbook audio, as well as additional learning resources, such as the grammar presentations and expanded wordlists.

Workbook

- Mirrors the Student's Book lesson by lesson and consolidates learning with targeted practice.
- Additional topic-related practice of reading, writing, speaking, listening and use of English skills.
- Extensive practice of course grammar and vocabulary.

Teacher's Book

- Teaching notes with a wealth of additional and alternative classroom ideas, including for mixed-ability classes, fast finishers, and additional questions to encourage critical thinking.
- Embedded audio scripts and answer keys within the teaching notes.
- 'How to' sections in the introduction, giving advice on teaching, flipping the classroom, developing your students as independent learners, how to use the assessment materials, how to teach with readers and teaching with projects.

General Teaching Tips

Tips for tackling each new unit

Before starting each new unit, you should read and study the following points in detail in the Scope and Sequence for Grades \(1-8\) and Contents Map for Grades\(9-12\) in the Teacher's Book:

- The Unit objectives
- The Language
- The Learning outcomes
- The Key competences
- The Future skills
- Evaluation

Tips on improving teaching methods

- Try to observe other English teachers' lessons to gain more teaching experience and do team teaching with your colleagues.
- Visit other schools nearby. Observe classes and discuss the curriculum and methodology with experienced teachers. Invite them to your school, too!
- Always remember to liaise with your Senior Teacher and Supervisor.
- Always remember to liaise with the LRC teacher to ensure that you receive all the English resources.
- Refer back to the «Notes for Teachers» at the beginning of the Lesson Preparation Book for some useful tips on preparing and reflecting on a lesson.
- Read and study the additional literacy activities and the photocopiable activities in the Teacher's Book.
